How we use cookies on KentTrainingandApprenticeships.co.uk

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to collect information about how you use this website (Kent Training and Apprenticeships). We do this to help make sure the site is meeting your needs and to make improvements based on our findings.

Google Analytics stores information about:

- The pages you visit on Kent Training and Apprenticeships
- The time you spend on each page
- How you got to the site
- What you click on while you are visiting the site
- Ecommerce transaction information such as visits and website conversion rate
- Demographic information such as age and gender

Kent Training and Apprenticeships do not collect or store your personal information (for example your name or address) so cannot identify who you are through Google Analytics.

We download reports from Google Analytics based on a combination of the information available as listed above. The reports are used to help us identify marketing needs and trends. We store the reports securely in line with Data Protection, GDPR and Privacy Electronic Communications Regulations and they are retained by us for up to 5 years.

reCAPTCHA

Our website uses reCAPTCHA, provided by Google to determine if a user is a human and not a bot to protect from spam. The reCAPTCHA algorithm will check to see if there is a Google cookie placed on the website and will then add an additional reCAPTCHA specific cookie to the user's browser. For more information read the Google privacy policy and Google Terms of Service.

Microsoft Application Insights

We also use Microsoft Application Insights for analytics and error reporting in our website.

Microsoft Application Insights store information about:

- Server context: Machine name, locale, operating system, operation
- Inferred: Geo location from IP address, timestamp, operating system, browser
- Perf counters: Server-based performance information
- Requests: URL, duration, response code
- Exceptions: Type, message, call stacks, erroring file, line with error
- Session: Session ID

Enabling website functionality

Our cookie management solution

You may see a notification when you visit our website to let you know that we are using cookies.

Name	Purpose	Expires
CookieConsent	Used to remember that a user has allowed cookies on the site. We deem this an essential cookie.	1 month - accepted 7 days - declined

Campaign Monitor

We use Campaign Monitor to manage our email updates to our learners. Campaign Monitor uses page tags and web beacons for the purposes of tracking visitors as they use an email. For example, web beacons track whether an email sent through Campaign Monitor was delivered and opened and whether links within the email were clicked. This information is collected for the purposes of providing email campaign performance information and measuring the performance of email messages sent.

Find out more information about Campaign Monitor cookies by visiting the Campaign Monitor website.

Survey Monkey

We use Survey Monkey to carry out research to improve your experience with Kent Training and Apprenticeships.

Find out more information about Survey Monkey cookies by visiting the Survey Monkey website.

Our Social Media Accounts

We use social media sites to communicate and engage with residents, businesses, and communities in Kent and beyond. These sites may use cookies themselves, but you cannot control them using the cookie management solution on our website. You will need to use the consent mechanisms on each of those websites or apps to set your cookie preferences

Other Kent Training and Apprenticeships online services

This cookie policy and our cookie management solution applies to www.kenttrainingandapprenticeships.co.uk. Most of the online services we provide use different software and systems. These services, and any other websites we link to, may set additional cookies and, if so, will have their own cookie policy and, where applicable, a consent mechanism.

Changing your cookie settings

If you no longer want this website to use non-essential cookies when you visit, you can manage your cookie preferences using the cookie management solution. However, this may not necessarily remove any unexpired cookies we have set. You'll need to reload any open pages for the changes to fully take effect.

There are several ways you can manage or delete cookies depending on which browser you used when you visited our website. Find out how to manage cookies on popular browsers:

- clear, enable and manage cookies in Google Chrome
